ALMA MATER

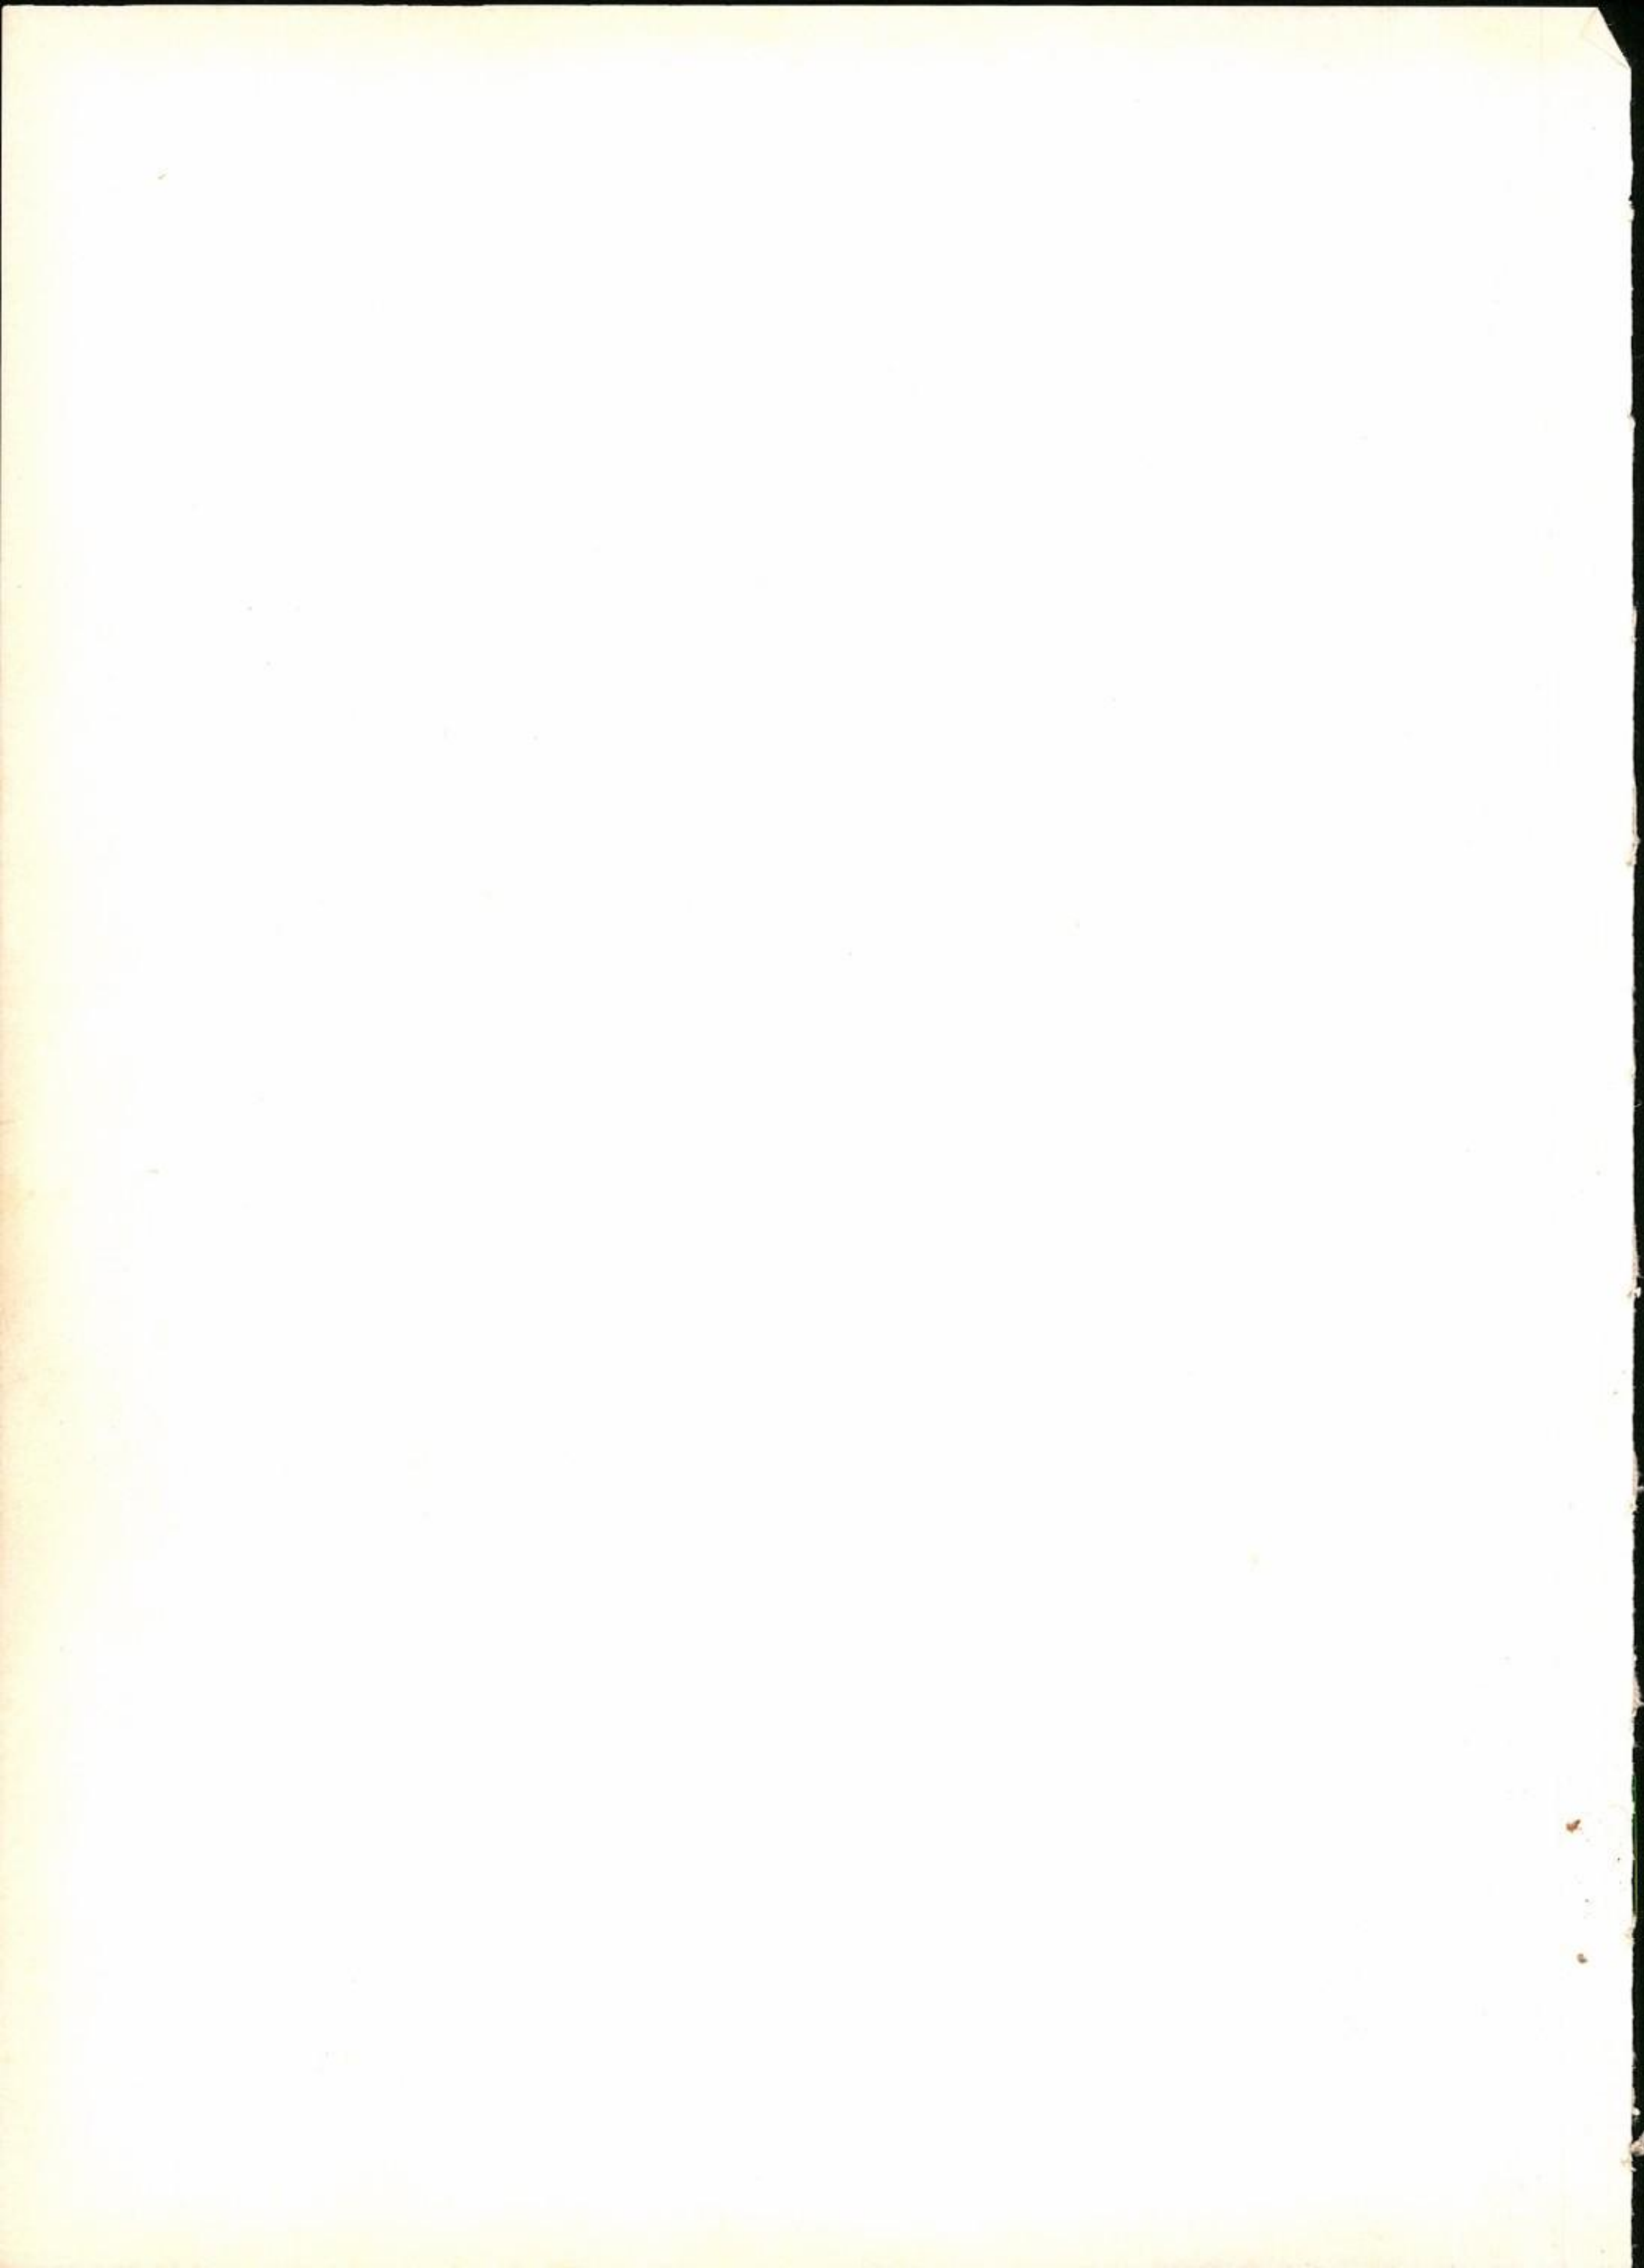

Oh, here are we a school band gay,
Laughing through Life's rugged way.
We're striving for a grand success,
Honor, Love and Happiness.
We love our school, so staunch and strong,
Old R. H. S. you can't go wrong.
Our student pals, and classmates true,
Shall live for ere, along with you.

FARMERS STATE BANK

ROSENDALE, MISSOURI

We the Senior class of 1955 are happy to present to you, this annual. We hope that this, one of the last things we will do at Rosendale, will in a small way show everyone how much we have loved the years we have spent in this school. During our four years of high school we have learned not only the "Three R's" but we have also gained the valuable knowledge of how to associate with other people and how to adjust to the problems of our ever progressing world. No building or institution of any kind can quite take the place of our Alma Mater, Rosendale High. Not just because it is a truly great school, but because of the noble people that we have met within its walls.

SCHOOL BOARD

Dedication

MISS MARY LOU BREIT

We humbly dedicate this annual to our teacher and advisor, Miss Mary Lou Breit. Monuments are erected in honor of famous people, statues are built in memory of beloved leaders, so we feel that our annual is quite small in comparison to all the help and assistance she has given us. We hope that in this small way we may show her how much we appreciate her and all her advice. Thank You, Miss Mary Lou Breit. May you receive rich reward for your efforts.

The Class Prophecy

In the year of 1970, A census we decided to take,
To review the class of '55, Just for old times sake.
We question Kay and we find, In matrimony, she's way behind.
Said she, I'm such a fool, An old maid and teaching school.
Next in line is Willard J., He tells us he had a test today.
In college you have a lot to do, Poor Willard can't get through.
Kathleen is doing quite fine, As hostess on a big airline.
I'm glad to be safe and sound, With both feet on the ground.

Dum De Dum-Dum, here comes J. K., He says I'm having a real rough day,
I haven't caught a crook all year, I've began to wonder why I'm here.
We are told that Dale will soon be here, He is a most famous engineer.
He is working in Cumberland Ridge, Building a rival to Brooklyn Bridge.
Here comes Sandra moping in. Through the years she's grown more slim.
She studied nutrition and such, But it looks like she didn't learn much.
At Patty's house is lots of noise, For she has six mean little boys.
She works a lot, but little other, Everyone says she is a good mother.

Carolyn says she's late for practice, She is now a famous actress,
She works all day on a T.V. Show, And sings at night on the radio.
Many would like a job like Earl's, Cause he has a job, coaching girls,
They have won every basketball game, so Earl has both fortune and fame
Patricia runs a fancy beauty shop, All her work is right on top.
She said she got a funny stare, When on the floor fell a lady's hair.
Next we meet Donna in her store, Her motto is "Selling Wigs Galore".
Donna says my store sells hair, Which is to cover up what's not there.

Darrel's job requires a lot of luck, For you see he drives a dynamite truck.
He say's, my truck's not one to rob, But light a match and I'd lose my job.
The next one we see is Norris Brock, From him we get quite a shock,
We find that Norris is in jail, With ten angry wives on his tail.
In the movies Jo Ann Mc. makes her career, Selling popcorn, year by year,
She says this job puts me all a flutter, Shelling popcorn and melting butter.
A traveling saleswoman is Ima Jean, The fastest talker you've ever seen.
She sells stamps and stationery, So she'll have enough money to marry.

Dereva has written a best seller book, It was published in Life and Look.
Her latest is really a honey, She sells her books and makes lots of money.
Here comes a lady with her car in reverse, It's Shirley, a private nurse.
Shirley says she's a lucky human, Because she works for Harry Truman.
Step right up and make your bids, Says the lady auctioneer and all her kids.
It's Jo Ann Morrison, selling snakes, Here is a girl who has what it takes.
Doyle roars up in a brand new car, As a hot rod racer, he's best by far.
He won the international speed race, At 100 miles an hour, he set the pace.

Mary Jo say's her heart is merry, Since she became a private secretary.
And she says with a soft little sigh, I plan to be married by and by.
We have lost one classmate, Johnny's been gone since graduation date.
Several thought that he was dead, But others say he's home in bed.
Eugene will arrive soon we're told, We're shocked to hear he's a bachelor bold.
He walks right in with a jaunty air, And displays his money with a flair.
The word is around that Jimmy is back, Up north he works as a lumber jack.
His job would give many a fright, Breaking up log jams with dynamite.

Thank you folks, we're all through, Here's the class and what they do.

A black and white collage featuring various vintage items. On the left, a record player with a vinyl record on its turntable sits next to a glass Coca-Cola bottle. Below the record player is another vinyl record. On the right, a jeweled crown with a large central gemstone and a high-heeled shoe with a bow are displayed. A thick white diagonal line runs from the top right to the bottom left, separating the items. The word "ACTIVITIES" is written in a stylized, italicized font across the white line.

Jo Ann McDonald is the other of the four cheerleaders. She was elected cheerleader in the place of Carolyn Jo Branson who moved to Oregon shortly after this picture was taken. Besides JoAnn we have Dawn Beattie and Gloria Pittman who assisted in cheering at some of the ballgames. All the girls with the help of a fine cheering section, did a wonderful job this year to lead our teams to victory. Thirty Cheers for the "Cheerleaders"!!!!

The Cardinals basketball team started the season with seven lettermen: Earl Shultz, Darrel Williams, Willard Jenkins, Richard Carr, J.K. Huffaker, Robert Nickels, and Wayne Grishow.

While having only one boy over 6 ft., the Cardinals romped through a 31 game schedule, winning 26 games and losing only 5. The season was climaxed by the Cardinals winning the Platte Valley Conference.

Earl Shultz and Darrel Williams were elected Co-Captains for the season.
